JAJA KISSES - GIRL NEXT BLOCK

Hailing from West London, JaJa Kisses is a singer, songwriter & producer serving psychedelic vocals over celestially-alluring, bass infused soundscapes. Best described as Bjork and Sade's lovechild she has been developing her digital footprint since 2012, a trailblazer for non conformity. JaJa is paving her own path and blurring the lines between alt r&b, art pop & escape room. Diving into uncomfortable realms of self realisation, she uses vividly haunting + soul edged vocals, threaded with a subdued intimacy of cryptic and introspective lyrics against highly addictive beats. Accompanied by mysterious, kawaii and surreal visuals, JaJa Kisses is a creator of unmistakably emotive pieces.

“she delivers stories of love, sensuality, and soul-searching but above all, stories of a youth thriving through creation.”
HighClouds

Her debut mixtape Young Fashioned (2016) and subsequent releases have been well received by various outlets such as MTV Wrapped, Afropunk, Notion Magazine, Dummy, Radar Radio, NTS, No Signal and more. She has performed at several homegrown events including support for Joyce Wrice x NTS at Jazz Cafe London, Little Simz Welcome To Wonderland Festival + Official Afropunk Festival Warm Up Party. After taking a hiatus (aka going through a breakup) following the pandemic to exercise other creatives outlets (such as producing music visuals alongside brother KDC Visions for Trippie Redd, KSI, and xxxTentacion and debuting as a music producer for a Youtube Originals x Patricia Bright series) – Kisses is back with even more introspection 🥹 and melodic prowess to decipher her awkward resistance to growing up – but in the most scorpio way possible 🐍

9 Months of a genre blending sonic journey for Disney damsels and sad club alumnus surrendering to the cognitive dissonance triggered by how things were supposed to be. Hearts that could never be conquered. Fury never expressed. Boundaries that were too scary to cross. And vulnerability that was never afforded.
